First by Caucus Chair Nygren, Second by Senator Xiong.

Voice vote passed it.

VI. Ice Breaker: Trivia

What percentage of a watermelon is water?

1)60% 2) 92% 3)100%

The answer is: 2)92%

VII. Article of The Week: Inclusivity

Director Cronic: "This weeks Article of Inclusivity is about Chloe Zhao. She is the first asian woman to win best director at the Oscars. I thought in light of this weekend being the Oscars, and since it is a woman's history that this week's article would be about her. I read the article, and she is actually super cool."

VIII. Discussion

· Senator Xiong's Update

Senator Xiong talked with us about her project she's currently working on. She talked about how she met with Dean Gretel Stock and Karrie Lane to discuss ways to make transfer students feel more welcome. Senator Xiong's friends are working on a survey to send to transfer students. After they receive the results, then Senator Xiong will decide the best course of action.

· Teal Project Trivia Questions (10 minutes)

We skipped it for the week.

IX. New Business

Resolution Acknowledging April 14th - April 16th as Trivia Weekend

Caucus Chair Nygren told the group that he wanted to write a resolution recognizing the weekend of April 14th-16th as trivia weekend. He decided to put it through SLAC this year.

X. Old Business

None.

XI. Announcements

Director Cronic brought up the conversation the senate had the night prior about how SGA should address students passing. The committee decided to repeal the statute regarding the Student Death Statute to add in a ceremony for students who passed over the academic year at the last meeting of the session.

XII. Adjournment

Director Cronic: "I adjourn this meeting at 2:24pm."
